

“Australia’s Data Future”

Thursday, 21 November 2019, 1230- 1700 Hours

The Utzon Room, Sydney Opera House

DRAFT PROGRAM

1215–1230	Doors open
1230–1235	Welcome by Robyn Williams AM
1235–1240	Welcome to Country - Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council
1240–1245	Dr Merran Smith, PHRN Chief Executive
1245–1250	MC - Robyn Williams AM to Introduce Session One Session One topic: IMPACT What should we use Australia’s publicly funded data for?
1250–1310	First Speaker - Nicholas Gruen, Chief Executive Officer, Lateral Economics
1310–1305	Robyn Williams AM to thank Nicholas Gruen and introduce second speaker
1305–1325	Ellen Broad, Head of Technical Delivery, Consumer Data Standards for CSIRO’s Data61, author and board game designer
1325–1330	Robyn Williams AM to thank Ellen Broad and open to questions
1330-1350	Questions
1350–1355	Robyn Williams AM to wrap up Session One and introduce Session Two Session two topic: TRUST Who should we trust to use Australia’s publicly funded data
1355-1415	Third Speaker – Carolyn Adams, Senior Lecturer, Macquarie Law School
1415-1420	Robyn Williams AM to thank Carolyn Adams and introduce fourth speaker
1420-1440	Fourth Speaker - Professor Annette Braunack-Mayer, Head of School and Professor of Health Ethics, University of Wollongong
1440-1445	Robyn Williams AM to thank Professor Braunack-Mayer and open to questions

1445-1505	Questions
1505-1510	Robyn Williams AM to wrap up Session Two
1510-1530	Break – tea and coffee
1530–1535	Robyn Williams AM to introduce Session Three Session three topic: INNOVATION How should we use Australia’s publicly funded data
1535-1555	Fifth Speaker – Professor Hugh Durrant-Whyte, NSW Chief Scientist and Engineer
1555-1600	Robyn Williams AM to thank Professor Durrant-Whyte and introduce sixth speaker
1600-1620	Sixth Speaker – Dr Terry Sweeny, Managing Director, IBM Watson Health
1620-1625	Robyn Williams AM to thank Dr Sweeny and open to questions
1625-1645	Questions
1645-1700	Robyn Williams AM to wrap up overall afternoon
1700	Close of event